RULES FOR COMPLETING SELF DECLARATIONS (DICHIARAZIONE DI NOTORIETA)

a) GENERAL RULES (FOR ITALIAN AND EU CITIZENS)

Pursuant to Article 47 of Decree No. 445 of December 28, 2000, all personal conditions, facts, and qualifications not included among those expressly identified in Article 46 of the same decree (for which a self-certification may be submitted), as well as the fact that a copy of a publication is a true copy of the original, are proven by the interested party in their dealings with public administrations and public service providers, subject to the exceptions expressly provided by law, by means of a self-certification.

The declaration referred to in the aforementioned Article 47 of Decree No. 445 of December 28, 2000, may also concern personal conditions, facts, and qualifications relating to other individuals of whom the interested party has direct knowledge.

Pursuant to Articles 21, paragraph 1, and 38, paragraphs 2 and 3 of Decree No. 445 of December 28, 2000, as amended, the authenticity of the signature on any application or affidavit is guaranteed if the application or affidavit is:

- signed by the interested party in the presence of the designated employee; or
- signed and submitted together with a non-certified photocopy of the signatory's identity document.

Applications and photocopies of identity documents may also be submitted by fax. If the interested party possesses an invalid identity document or identification document, the status, personal qualifications, and facts contained therein may be proven by showing it, provided that the interested party declares, at the bottom of the photocopy of the document, that the information contained therein has not changed since its date of issue.

b) RULES FOR NON-EU CITIZENS RESIDENT IN ITALY

Starting from January 2017, foreign citizens will be treated as Italians with respect to the possibility of using self-certifications in dealings with the Public Administration. Therefore, immigrants will be able to submit self-certifications, and the administration will automatically acquire the required immigration documentation. In any case, the self-certifications referred to in Articles 46 and 47 of Decree 445/2000 may be used only for personal statuses, facts, and qualifications that can be certified or attested by public bodies in Italy.
